Agreement For Use of Therapy Sessions for Training / Consultation

We _____ (“Client/Couple”) consent to our therapist _____ (“Therapist”) sending tapes of our therapy session(s) to Brent Bradley, Ph.D. (“Consultant”). This is in order that our therapist can receive further training from the consultant in the EFT model of Intervention. We understand that the contents/tapes of the session(s) and the consultant’s feedback to the therapist will be kept private and confidential by the consultant and that the consultant will return the tapes to the therapist after the training. We understand that no names or identifying information other than what is on the tape will be provided to anyone.

We also agree that the consultant is only responsible for providing training/consultation to the therapist on the use of the EFT model of Intervention. This training is a service to the therapist. The therapist is then solely responsible for the conduct of our therapy sessions and any outcomes of these sessions. In consideration of the consultant providing the training to the therapist in the EFT model of Intervention, we the client/couple, agree that the consultant Brent Bradley shall not be, in any way, held responsible by us or by any other person associated with us for what occurs in any of our therapy sessions or the outcome of those sessions.
